Where should I write this in Facebook?

Object Of Conversation	Where to write	Notes
Direct private message to correspondent	 Use Facebook Messaging and Chat features: Click "Message" on your screen Start a conversation using the Facebook Chat panel on the right-hand side 	The message will arrive in the correspondent's Inbox or be highlighted as a notification.
Message to correspondent which isn't intended to be confidential E.g. Birthday or anniversary greeting, well- wishes	Your correspondent's Timeline	Appears on my Timeline and my correspondent's Timeline
General comment or broadcast message	My Timeline as a Status Update	Think carefully before you write. You may intend it for your Facebook Friends but the wrong comment may be perceived by a Facebook newbie (novice) as embarrassing in front of their Friends.
Comment in response to a Status Update, Photo, Link or whatever you see in Facebook that isn't intended to be confidential	Comments option for that Status Update, Photo, Link, etc	Think carefully before you leave that comment. As above, it may be intended to the author of the comment, posted photo, etc but the wrong comment may be perceived as embarrassing or hurtful.
Message for a Group or Fans of a Page	Facebook users who visit the "Just Fans" tab of the Page
